

Rosanna Brown English Tuition - Pricing

1:1 Tuition Programmes

Weekly In-Person Tuition - £50.00 per hour

Personalised face-to-face support tailored to individual learning goals.

Why choose 1:1 in-person tuition?

- Fully personalised learning tailored to individual strengths, gaps and goals
- Immediate targeted feedback to correct misconceptions and accelerate progress
- Greater focus and accountability in a distraction-free learning environment
- Responsive teaching with lessons adapted in real time to student understanding
- Stronger confidence building through individual encouragement and guided success
- Deeper exploration of texts and writing with time to unpick ideas thoroughly
- Ideal for exam preparation with focused practice on specific GCSE skills and targets
- Booked as a six-week block of sessions, costing £300.00 (£50.00 per session/per week), these programmes allow for skills to be developed consistently, giving students time to practise, apply feedback and build meaningful long-term progress

Weekly Online Tuition - £45.00 per hour

Live interactive lessons with the same personalised support, delivered remotely.

Why choose 1:1 online tuition?

- Flexible and convenient with no travel time, making sessions easy to fit around busy schedules
- Learn from the comfort of home, helping students feel relaxed and ready to engage
- Fully personalised support tailored to individual targets and areas for development
- Interactive digital learning tools to model writing, annotate texts and provide instant feedback
- Session recordings and shared resources support revision and independent study where appropriate
- Ideal for independent or home learners who benefit from focused academic coaching in a familiar environment
- Booked as a six-week block of sessions, costing £270.00 (£45.00 per session/per week), these programmes allow for skills to be developed consistently, giving students time to practise, apply feedback and build meaningful long-term progress

Focused One- Off 1:1 Sessions

These targeted one-to-one tuition sessions are designed for students who need immediate expert support without committing to a full tuition programme. Sessions are ideal for focused academic intervention, exam preparation and personalised guidance tailored to specific priorities.

Online Session — £55 per hour
In-Person Session — £60 per hour

Why choose focused one-off support sessions?

- Immediate personalised support: Teaching is tailored to current priorities, targets and areas for development.
- Targeted academic intervention: Sessions focus precisely on the skills or content most likely to accelerate progress.
- Expert guidance when it matters most: Ideal for students needing timely support before important assessments or deadlines.
- Clear next-step strategies: Students leave with practical, actionable guidance they can apply immediately.
- Confidence-building through focused success: Personalised teaching helps students feel more secure and capable in English.
- A pathway into longer-term tuition: An excellent opportunity to experience the teaching approach before committing to a structured six-session programme.

Please note:

- Focused one-off sessions are intended as occasional targeted academic support and are offered subject to availability.
- These sessions are not designed to replace regular tuition provision and cannot be booked repeatedly as an alternative to a structured six-session programme.
- Where ongoing support is recommended, families will be invited to move onto an appropriate tuition programme to ensure meaningful, sustained progress.
- A minimum of 24 hours' notice is required for cancellation or rescheduling, and payment must be made in full at the time of booking.
- For sustained progress and long-term development, structured six-session tuition programmes are recommended wherever possible.